FLOCKTON V. THORNHILL.

On Saturday last, the return match was played between these clubs, at Flockton, when the home club won the game by six runs. At Thornhill, Flockton obtained 108 runs against Thornhill's 20 for four wickets down, thus making one win, and one draw greatly in favour. The fielding, and stumping (especially T. Leather) were very good. Pickard, at point, made a splendid catch a good height above him, contorting his body so much by a backward move that, for a time, it was thought he had seriously hurt himself. Score:—
