CRICKET CHAT.

was heartily cheered for his fine expected victory. The popular press Licensed Victuallers' Green Owners' Dan Gos, of Chorley, was altogether for the local lad, Singleton, who had distinguished himself in the first stage.

Prominent amongst the day's success Hilton ("Teapot"), one of the men 1898, and Nat Walton, the old international footballer. Of those who from the lists mention might be Mr Edwards, of Poulton, the erstwhile some years ago was second to Shrubbs country championship, and R. Threlk's pool, who opened this year's sweep.

In very marked contrast, the weather day was vile in the extreme, and were the sun total got through. They really not fit to play on, but as there players in readiness, and anxious to fate in the second round, they were on own option. A portion of the ground was too soft, and was roped off. Understand the games were of considerable few of the more prominent professional to play rather than wait until Monday Peace, our local champion, who on tinction of being the only living bowler the great tournament twice, in 1893 as feated J. Bentham, of Mawdsley, at latter bowled well. The winner of
