

Mytholunrozd.

This field is situate between the river and the canal a little way out of the village towards Luddendenfoot. It measures 159 yards x 140 yds and has a crease 32 x 22. Some ^{further} portions of the field are also laid. The crease is in good order, and the outfield is fair.

There is a fair pavilion and seating for about 60.

It should be mentioned that not the whole of the field is available as the pavilion is placed some way into the field.
