

Changing times

AN historic moment . . . Kirklees Mayor Colin Watson cuts the ribbon at Skelmanthorpe Cricket Club's new changing rooms.

His wife, Doreen, the Mayoress, is pictured with (from left) club secretary Trevor Heeley, chairman Richard Greaves, president Harry Micklethwaite and Stuart Dickinson, of builders Hanover Developments.

The new changing rooms were built at the side of the clubhouse on the site of their demolished predecessors.

Mr Heeley said the extension formed part of continuing improvements costing £20,000 and made possible by a brewery loan and a £1,000 grant from Kirklees Council.

Trophy time—Skelmanthorpe players and league president Jim Dawson (third left) look on as skipper Graeme Hurlbatt receives the Byrom Shield from Ron McGee, duty manager of the Hilton National Hotel, who sponsor the championship