

The Thongsbridge second gave a sorry display, and were beaten by nine wickets.

DEARNE VALLEY LEAGUE.

Denby Dale made short work of Shelley. Fred Sykes was again very much in the picture, as after taking five wickets for 11, including the "bat trick" he scored 42 before having to retire owing to an injury. A. Brown, with five for 20, and S. Smith (34) also did good work with ball and bat. Shelley second fared almost as badly as the first team. An eight wickets instead of a nine wickets reverse was the only difference.

COLNE AND HOLME LEAGUE.

The "big guns" included in the Moor End battery on Saturday could not get over the Hall Bowrites. On their own ground they are dangerous opponents, and they had to thank A. Chat-
