

Slaithwaite's longest-serving supporter, Harry Stones, gave a little bit back to his beloved club when he presented a seat for the pavilion. Harry, 83, has been involved with the Section 'A' side for almost 70 years and was rewarded in 1986 when he won the Huddersfield League's Fred Stallard Cup for long service. Harry was a player, second-team captain, secretary, treasurer, groundsman and vice-chairman, to name but a few of his different roles over the years. And last Saturday, Harry with his wife, Louie, proudly presented the seat to his home club
