INTRODUCTION

The Club was formed in 1884 as Moorlands Methodist Church Cricket Club. It played in the Sunday League on a field owned by local mill owner Sam Fenton. When the Dewsbury and District Cricket League was formed in 1911, Moorlands C C was one of the founder members.

For many years the Club played on a sloping field on Moor Lane, Dewsbury Moor. When this was sold for housing, the Club moved to a Corporation field at Sands Lane, Dewsbury. This remained the home of the Club until 1986 when the Club moved to its current ground at Memorial Park, Mirfield.

In 1987 the Club applied to join the Huddersfield Central League and was accepted for the 1988 season.

In 1996 work was started in preparing a Lottery Application which resulted in a grant of 75,000 being obtained and the Club being able to boast of having some of the best facilities in the League.

Over the years, the Club has had mixed success on the field. In 1933, 1957 & 1983, the Second XI Cup was won and in 1935 and 1936, the Jessop Cup (section A) was added. 1991 was a particularly successful year with the Under 17s winning the Armitage Cup and the newly formed Sunday XI winning the Wakefield Cup and Divisional Championship.

1997-1998 saw many changes for the Club and it was finally accepted into the Central Yorkshire Cricket League. In addition, the new clubhouse was officially opened and the Club became known as Moorlands Cricket Club, reflecting the fact that it was now firmly based in Mirfield.

In 2001 the Club gained promotion to the first division by winning the First XI League Championship and in 2004 the First XI won the Presidents Trophy for the First XI runners up in the Yorkshire Councils play offs.
