1906 v Hopton Mills:

CHICKENLEY HAVE AN AFTERNOON'S OUTING.

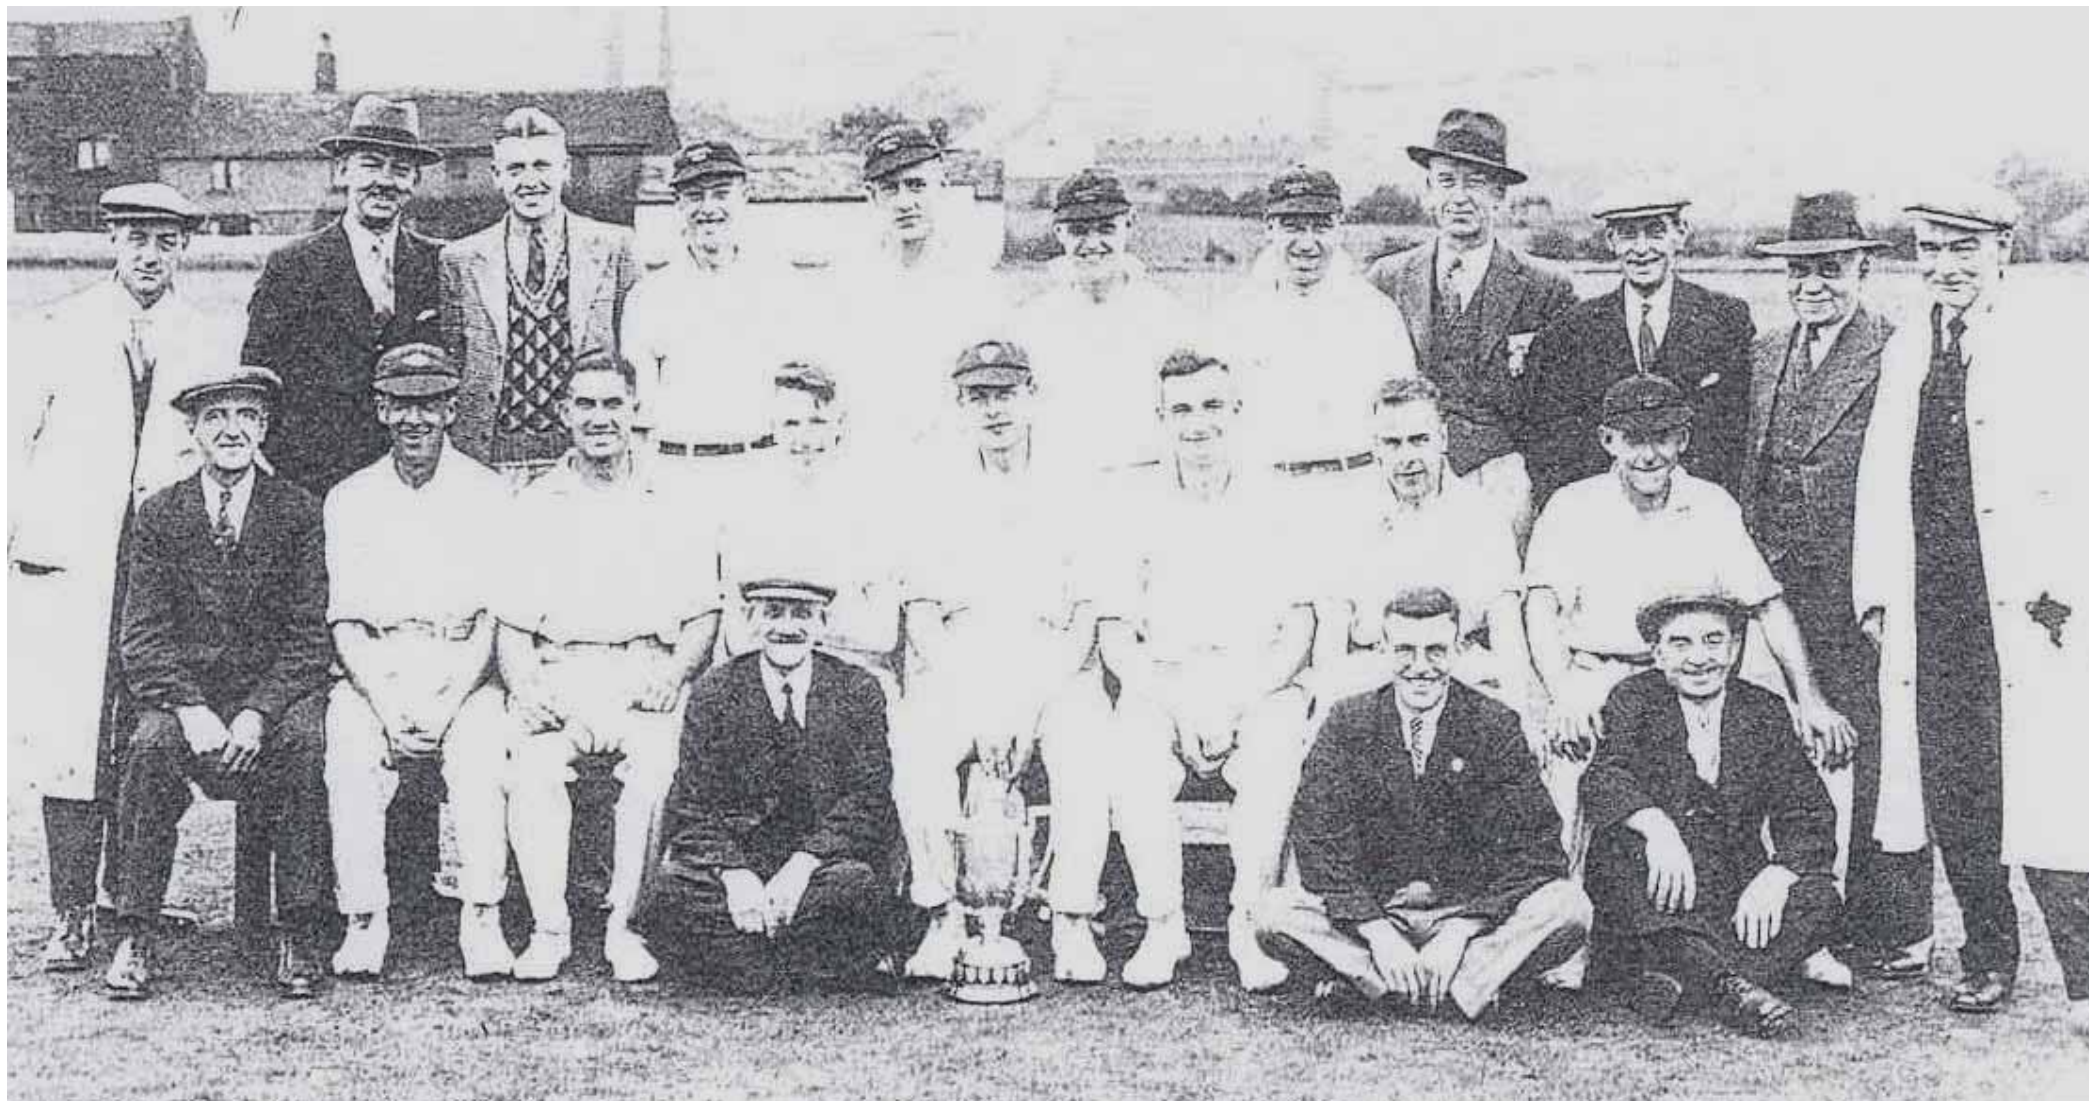

The Chickenley cup-tie team very kindly visited Hopton Mills last Saturday, accompanied by a good many of their ardent supporters, and a very pleasant game was the result. Batting first, the Mills did not do at all well against Partington and Bailes, and were all out for 70. To this Chickenley replied with 97. The feature of the afternoon's play was the good bowling and fielding on both sides. In the evening the cup was handed round for inspection, and songs were ren-

Chickenley Win Their Last Game

Chickenley beat Drighlington by 17 runs at Chickenley on Saturday. Batting first, the home side lost G. Garforth without scoring, but H. Claydon and G. G. Gill put on 94 for the second wicket. E Pinder and E. Gill added 18 and 28 respectively and Chickenley were in a comfortable position with 129 runs for 4 wickets. Several wickets fell cheaply before they declared at 155 or 9. Drighlington tried six bowlers, of whom W. Cawthray (3 for 42), and E. Lambert (3 for 43) were most successful. The visitors lost three quick wickets, but W. Cawthray and G. Pinfield raised the score to 62 for 4. Several other batsmen reached double figures, but they were never happy against the bowling of A. Idle (5 for 49), G. G. Gill (2 for 48) and M. Wilby (2 for 28). Idle took the last wicket with the score at 138.
