

DEWSBURY FOLK

EDGAR OLDROYD

Born in Healey, Batley, he is probably Dewsbury's most famous cricketing son. He won his Yorkshire cap in 1921 and played 384 matches in all. He hit 36 first-class centuries and totalled 15,925 runs at 35.15 during his career.

PHIL SCOTT

High-pedigree Dewsbury batsman of the 1980s.

DAVID HAIGH

Post-war bowler who had also starred for Hanging Heaton, Batley and Cleckheaton.

ARTHUR PEARSON

Ex-Thornhill player who bowled left-arm medium pacers for Dewsbury in the post-war years.

F. CROSS

Club scorer in 1910.

ROY BOWERS

Ex-Ossett and Hanging Heaton player who tried hypnosis when he was in the middle of a bad run with the bat.

J.E. TOLSON

Mayor of Dewsbury and a teacher by trade. He was President of Dewsbury CC and, in the 1950s, was said to have attended every Heavy Woollen Cup final since the inception of the competition.

JACK SMITH

Ex-Ossett player who is remembered best for his high-calibre slip fielding.

DONALD QUAYLE

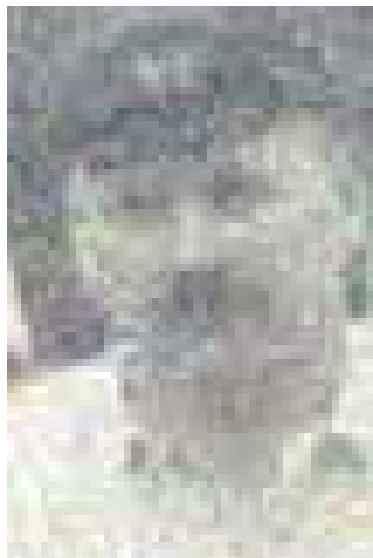

All-rounder and local lad who joined Batley after serving the Dewsbury club in the post-war years.

GEOFF ROBINSON

1950s batsman who arrived at the Savile
Ground via Ossett.

EDWARD HILL

Dewsbury & Savile skipper of the early twentieth century.

H. HARRISON

Star Savile professional in the pre-1914 era.

W.G. SQUIRES

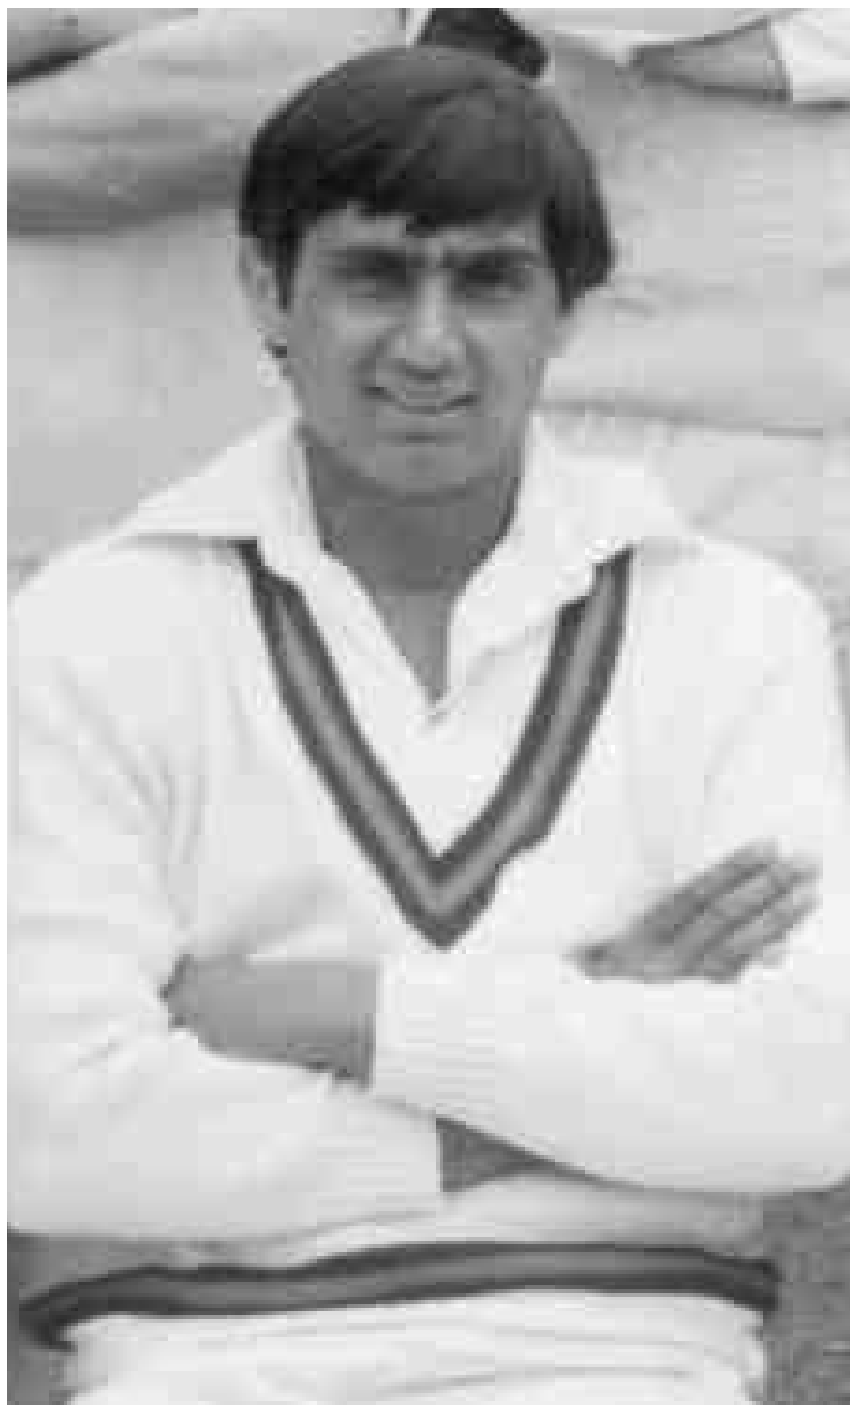

Dewsbury skipper in the 1960s.

D. CROFT

Dewsbury CC captain in the 1970s.

LUCKMAN HANS

The first Asian cricketer to make his name in the Dewsbury side.

CLIFFORD SYKES

According to good judges, the best captain to lead a home side out at the Savile Ground. According to one observer, he could 'read the game like a book.'

DONALD BOULD

Ex-Chickenley star who starred for Dewsbury in the 1950s.

CLIFFORD BARKER

Opening batsman who learnt his cricket at Ossett.

MAURICE POLLARD

Longserving player and administrator who became 'Mr Dewsbury CC' in the second half of the twentieth century. After the merger he moved to Hopton Mills CC and is now an elder statesman of the Central Yorkshire League.

CLIFFORD HEPPONSTALL

Ex-Hanging Heaton player who starred for Dewsbury in the 1950s and lived in Huddersfield.

RON CHAPMAN

Club committee in the 1950s and President of Dewsbury & Savile Cricket & Bowling Club.