

Hebden Bridge CC

Played in the Halifax Association 1946-49 and 1963-2004. Began as Salem (Wesleyans), their first league cricket being in the Calder Valley League from 1892. Played at Foster Holme, Bents and Calder Holme before settling at Hollins Holme around 1925. Long-standing members of the Hebden Bridge League, playing in the Halifax Association in the late 1940s when that league was not operating. Moved to the Halifax League for the 1954-62 period, re-entering the Association in 1963, changing names to Hebden Bridge from 1972. Division 3 winners in 1963, Division 2 winners in 1964 (and 1975) and Division 1 winners in 1966, 1967, 1968, 1976 and 1981. Collinson Cup winners in 1963, 1965 and 1975.
