

Holmfirth CC – Bridge Fold Heritage

Graphic by Charlotte Hudson

Mills

Holmfirth's ground is bordered by several mills. The mill-owners used to play a full and active part in the club.

Trees

The ground is bordered by the pleasant sight of a copse of trees, adding a more sheltered feel..

White Wall

The ground is surrounded by a low white wall, which follows the gentle curve of the perimeter of the outfield.

Residences

The closeness of housing shows how the club is situated at the heart of the local community.

Pavilion

Holmfirth's pavilion is the social hub of the club, providing food and drinks for players and spectators alike.

Outfield

Holmfirth is well known for its flat, well-cut playing surface.

Scoreboard

Allowing players and spectators to follow the score as it changes.
