

In June 2006 BBC Radio 4 programme You and Yours did a special feature on the Cricket Heritage Project. Broadcaster Chris Hawksworth visited the University of Huddersfield to examine some of our cricket-related artefacts and to interview project leader Dr Peter Davies and Work Placement students on the project, Rachel Heyes (middle) and Vicky Grainger (right).

SOUTH KIRKLEES

BEST OF ENEMIES!
The story of the bitter rivalry between the two cricket clubs of South Kirklees, the Huddersfield Cricket Club and the Huddersfield Town Cricket Club, which has lasted for over a century.

WARTIME GLOOM
A collection of photographs and documents from the Huddersfield Cricket Club during the Second World War, showing the impact of the conflict on the sport.

WELCOME GARY!
A commemorative document celebrating the arrival of Gary Sobers at Huddersfield Cricket Club in 1962.

LONGEST MATCH
A detailed account of the longest cricket match ever played, between Huddersfield and Bradford in 1931, which lasted for 11 days.

BENSON'S BOYS!
A historical document about the Benson's cricket team, which was active in the early 20th century.

WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS...
A document detailing the support and assistance provided to the Huddersfield Cricket Club by its friends and supporters.

Supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund

UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD

The Cricketing Heritage of Calderdale and Kirklees

CALDERDALE

BRING ON THE CLOWNS
A document about the history of the Huddersfield Circus and its performances in Calderdale.

HISTORY IN THE MAKING... AND CAPTURED ON FILM
A document about the filming of the Huddersfield Cricket Club's history in Calderdale.

THE BIG MOVE
A document about the relocation of the Huddersfield Cricket Club to its new ground in Calderdale.

BRING ON THE AUSSIES
A document about the Huddersfield Cricket Club's tour of Australia in 1935, featuring a photograph of the team.

WET, WET, WET - RAIN STOP PLAY!
A document about the impact of rain on cricket matches in Calderdale, featuring a photograph of a rain-soaked field.

UNIVERSITY OF HUDDERSFIELD

Supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund

