

In Summer 2007 the Cricket Heritage Project donated its framed 'Cricket in Kirklees' exhibition boards to the University of Huddersfield Sports Hall. The boards are now hanging on its walls

BAT & BALL

Over the decades talented cricketers and sportsmen from all over Essex and from all parts of the globe have played their part in our cricketing and sporting heritage.

Over time their achievements have been recognized and their names have been immortalized in the Essex Cricket Museum - a tribute to their contribution to the game.

Lord John Lubbock, 1st Baron of Borlugh, 1830-1913

Alan Matthews, Essex CC, 1958

Colin Astle, Essex CC and England

Peter Burge, Essex CC, 1960-1970

Alan Matthews, Essex CC, 1958

David Gurney, Essex CC, 1960-1970

Supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund

Christopher Matthews, Essex CC, 1960-1970

Alan Matthews, Essex CC, 1958

Alan Matthews, Essex CC, 1958

