INTRODUCTION

In the early years of the 20th century, "Warley Young Men" represented the village in cricketing competitions. This club was linked to Warley Congregational Church Sunday School. They made their 1st appearance in the Halifax Parish Cup in 1906. By 1913 the Club was playing in the Halifax District Cricket League but the Club went out of business in 1919, only to re-emerge 14 years later in 1933. The Club has played at Paradise Lane continuously since 1933. At a meeting on the 12 Jan 1933 it was proposed by E Kershaw that the Club should join the Halifax Amateur League.
