

KARMAND OPENING

On the evening of Friday 2 October, the Karmand Community Sports Association (KCSA) and Bradford East Business, Inspired Neighbourhoods (IN), and in association with the Yorkshire Cricket Board (YCB), the Inaugural Sports & Business Dinner was held to launch the new cricket and multi-sport facility at Barkerend Road, Bradford. There were 300 guests and the speakers included local MP and Sports Minister Mr Gerry Sutcliffe, Mr Rajeev Dewedi (Inspired Neighbourhoods), Mr Fergus Mitchell (Leeds and Bradford Corridor Regeneration Programme), project leader Dr Peter Davies, and special guest Mr John Holder (ICC representative and former Test umpire). The event attracted 32 sponsors including Yorkshire County Cricket Club.

In attendance, there were representations from Bradford Schools Sports Partnerships, Bradford Cricket League, and Bradford Central League. Some other special guests were Chief Executive of YCB Mr Ian Chappell, Chief Executive of YCCC Mr Stewart Regan, Director of Development for YCB Mr Andrew Watson, Director of West Yorkshire Sport Mr Nigel Harrison, National Groundsman of the Year Mr Rodney Heyhoe, and Institute of Groundsmanship IOG Mr David Robinson, plus several members of the local council including Councillor Mohammed Jamil.
