

JUNE AND JEAN

Mick Ellis on women's contribution to the club

June Harris and Jean Sidle have been loyal supporters. They always watch from in front of the tea room and I know they're there today!

The ladies have played a significant role at the club and June and Jean have been involved in most things.

Mrs Nicholson used to run the raffle. Karen Heseldin is the chief tea lady today.