*Cleckheaton Cricket Club can trace its roots back even further than the rugby club. In fact the first game was played on the present field in 1864. Originally called Hunsworth Mills Cricket Club the name was changed to Cleckheaton Cricket Club in 1885. For a more detailed history of the Club please click HERE

After many years of playing in the Yorkshire Council and Central Yorkshire Leagues the Club joined the Bradford Cricket League in 1976 gaining promotion to the First Division in 1979.

Since 1979 the team has fluctuated between the First and Second Divisions but since 1999 the Club has played in the First and are now looking forward to a fifth successive season in the top Division.

Many players from the Club have gone on to represent their counties and in some cases played internationally for their countries. At the time of writing this a Cleckheaton player has been called up to be 12th man for England at Headingley. Richard Pyrah (19) is the name and he is the leading scorer this season in the Bradford League. The future is bright.
