

HANGING HEATON GAIN EASY VICTORY.

Holbeck's visit to Hanging Heaton on Saturday troubled the home side very little, and the fact that Hanging Heaton were able to pass their opponents' score for the loss of only two wickets gave them one of their most comfortable victories of the season.

Batting first, the Holbeck side found the Hanging Heaton bowlers in good form, and, like many another side which has met Hanging Heaton this season, they experienced considerable difficulty in obtaining runs. Holbeck were all out for 75, thanks, to a large extent, to the edwiling performances of Howden, who had five wickets for an average of 1.5, Kaye, who had two for twelve, and Beety two for fifteen.

Wormald and Gommersall opened Hanging Heaton's innings, and they were successful in getting 38 before the partnership was broken up. Leadbeater and Armitage followed, and after Gommersall's dismissal, they were able to obtain the necessary runs to pass Holbeck's total. Gommersall was top scored with 24. Scores:
