

ALMONDBURY WESLEYANS CC

KAYE LANE TODAY

Kaye Lane is a pleasant local cricketing venue, with a splendid new pavilion.

Spectators can watch from the pavilion – and the Club is keen to show appreciation to the bodies that have helped fund recent redevelopment work.

The new kitchen facilities are state-of-the-art – and the tea ladies are smiling!

As you leave the Kaye Lane ground, you realise that it isn't actually in Almondbury at all (the village seems to end somewhere between the Methodist church and the cricket ground). This is a strange curio.
