

UPPERTHONG CC

THONG FOLK

JOHN QUARMBY

The land that is home to Upperthong C.C. is owned by local farmer John Quarmby. The club have had use of Stack Field since 1977.

At one point, the Club's changing rooms were moved 200 yards around the boundary's edge so that Mr Quarmby could watch the cricket from his front room!

SUE MORRIS

Sue is a cricketer herself, the wife of the ex-1st XI skipper, and also Club tea lady.

DAVE WOOD

Dave was involved in the formation of Barker Sports C.C.
– the Club that eventually merged with Uppershong.

DARRYL MORRIS

Darryl Morris captained the 1st XI to the Huddersfield Central League Section 'C' title in 2000.

RANDAL ATKINSON

Randal Atkinson was team manager during the early 1980s, when the Club was a predominantly social team based at the Royal Oak public house.

KIM SCHOFIELD

As Club groundsman in the early 1980s, Kim Schofield put a lot of effort into improving the Dean Road square.

PAUL TAYLOR

Along with Dave Wood and others, Paul Taylor formed Barker Sports C.C. in 1980. They then negotiated a sponsorship deal with a local sports shop and joined the Huddersfield Association Cricket League.

DAVE SUTTON

Hardworking Club groundsman and landlord at the nearby Royal Oak.

TED EDWARDS

Took 10-36 in one memorable encounter at Dean Road. But...he didn't win the League bowling prize as someone took 10 for 21 in the same season!

His best friend also dropped a catch off one of the other bowlers - and without that there would have been no maximum!

JOHN WILLIAMS

2nd XI skipper and key contributor to the Club's website. John has also helped us during the preparation of this Exhibition – so thanks John!
